DOUBLE TRAGEDIES

Prominent Young Georgia People Commit Suicide

Young Farmer Murders Wife Near Houston, Texas, and Blows Out His Brains.

DISGRACE AND JEALOUSY

[LOVERS DIE THE SAME DAY.

Quilman, Ga., April 15—Because a young girl loved out wisely, but too well, two persons are dead and the Dampier and Rogers families, which are prominent in South Georgia, are in mourning. Yesterday young Ivy Dampier was arrested on a warrant charging him with the seduction of Miss Georgia Rogers. Dampier submitted to arrest quietly, and arrangements were made for bond.

The young man was allowed to go to his room to bathe and change his clothing. In a few minutes after Dampier went to his room the sound of a pistol shot was heard. The officer and the young man's relatives hurried to the room, finding him dying from a pistol wound. As he died he gasped: "There was no need to arrest me, I would have married Georgia."

The news of Dampier's suicide spread rapidly, and soon reached Miss Rogers, who retired to her room and locked herself in the most elegant dress she possessed. She then took her father's shotgun, which she had secreted, placed the muzzle against her breast and exploded the weapon by a string which she had attached to the trigger. Her breast was terribly lacerated by the discharge, but she lived for some hours, all the time crying that she was going to meet her lover. Dampier and Miss Rogers were cousins, and the latter urged her relatives not to proceed against her lover, saying he would marry her. The girl and her lover will be buried together. The families are very prominent, having relatives in Savannah and Atlanta who occupy high business and political positions.

[KILLED WIFE AND HIMSELF.

Houston, Tex., April 15—Win Phillips, a young farmer living three miles from Arlington, this city, shot and killed his wife and then blew off the top of his own head on the farm of his wife's father, William Yates. Phillips and his wife had been married only two months, but never had lived contentedly. On Saturday last he beat and choked her, and on Sunday she left him, going to her father's home.

After the murder Phillips walked deliberately to his father's home, 100 yards distance, and told his mother what he had done. His mother replied that he would hang for the crime.

"No I won't," he said, "for I will kill myself first."

With this he walked to the front gate, knelt down and prayed, and then placed the butt end of the gun on the top round of the fence and the muzzle against his forehead. He then pulled the trigger, the two loads tearing away the entire top part of his head. Pieces of skull, particles of brains and hair were scattered over the ground.

MAY STOP AT HENDERSON

THE ARKANSAS WILL BE WELL ENTERTAINED THERE.

Henderson is making an effort to have the monitor Arkansas stop there on her trip to Evansville or on her way back. If permission is granted the people promise the best of hospitality.

There is some talk here of the inability of the vessel to go under the bridge at Cairo on her return, but it is claimed that her stack can be lowered if necessary, and that there is no danger.

The talk of firing a salute as she passes here is also incorrect, as such vessels are not allowed to fire salutes except on certain important occasions.

Miss Lulu Barksdale of Hurdy, Miss., will visit Miss Benah Reddick next week.

COBBLER GETS ROAST

He is Convicted of Stealing an Overcoat.

Alleged Murderer Insists on Examining Trial in Police Court.

OTHER CASES HEARD TODAY

Joe Adams, a colored shoemaker of South Fifth street, was presented on a charge of stealing Eugene Thomas overcoat from Mat Hubbard's barber shop. It is a new coat and the owner swore it was his and proved by the cinther from whom he purchased it that it was his. Adams said he bought it from a white man who claimed to represent a Chicago house, but he did not know the man and never saw him before or since. His gaudy story prompted the court to remark that he would never be able to find that man because he wasn't on this earth. He then told Adams that he expected if he, Adams, got his deserts he would have been hanged long ago. He said that for several years people had complained of Adams taking their shoes to pawn and claiming when they called for them that they had been stolen from him. Instead he had sold the goods. Judge Sanders said that at least twenty people had complained of having been thus robbed, but Adams always managed to get out of it. He sentenced him to three months at hard labor on the streets.

The case against Jake Caldwell, colored, for the murder of Zona Willis, colored, was called in the police court today and Judge Sanders stated he was thinking of turning it over to the grand jury, which is now in session. Caldwell's head is still swathed in cotton. His attorney, Mr. J. Wheeler Campbell, stated that he preferred that his client be given an examining trial, which he was entitled to. He said that it would be shown conclusively that Caldwell killed Willis in self defense, and as the grand jury hears only one side of a case, if the case is turned over to it, it would probably return an indictment and Caldwell would have to lay in jail without a trial until the September term of court, which would be an injustice, as he can easily prove he is innocent.

Judge Sanders stated that he would hear the case tomorrow morning, and all the witnesses will be summoned for 9 o'clock.

Robert Watson, white, a sixteen year old boy, was arrested on a charge of being drunk. He said he was drunk and that a man who came from Illinois with him gave him the whiskey. He has been working over near Brookport and came to the city on his way to Missouri, where his father lives. The Illinois man who accompanied him brought a half pint and together they drank it. The boy was not fined and the court informed him an effort would be made to send him home.

Sam Hickman, of the county, was charged with a breach of the peace. It seems he was the owner of some hogs that Worth Withrow was charged with stealing. Yesterday after the youth had been given six months in jail, Hickman is alleged to have remarked in the presence of the young man's father that he should have gotten five years and this caused an argument. Withrow had Hickman arrested on a warrant sworn out before Judge Sanders and Hickman had Withrow arrested on a warrant sworn out before Justice Young. Judge Sanders dismissed the warrant against Hickman today and recognized both men in the sum of $1,000 for the future good behavior.

Sterling Fitzgerald, colored, was fined $30 and costs for striking Henry Boyd, colored, and the latter was dismissed.

The case against C. C. Clarksen for a breach of the peace was continued.

FULTON STORE BURGLARIZED.

THE POLICE INQUIRIES

There Should be a Fund for Photographing Criminals.

Several Letters Received at Headquarters Today by Chief Bailey.

NONE OF THE PEOPLE LOCATED

A letter was today received at police headquarters from Chief of Police Matthew Kiely, of St. Louis, asking for a photograph of William King, the alleged diamond snatcher arrested here day before yesterday for getting Mr. George Tagg's diamond, and for information as to his methods of work. Chief Kiely has two objects in thus writing for information. One is that he wants to ascertain if King is not some celebrated crook wanted elsewhere, and another is that he wants all possible information in regard to thieves in order to know them all by sight, and have correct information relative to their methods of work by the time the world's fair opens.

No arrangements have yet been made to take a picture of King, as there is no fund for paying the expenses. At police headquarters it is claimed that the city should every year make an appropriation for such work, as it is often asked of the police and is necessary in exposing and keeping track of criminals.

Captain Henry Bailey, who has charge of the police force during the absence of Marshal Crow, is in receipt of a letter from Nashville making inquiry of Walter Thomas, a youth who formerly worked at the Deep Cave Mineral well and is wanted there again. He is now in Cave-in-Rock, Ill., and there it was said he had come to Paducah. He has not yet been located.

Mrs. Maggie McGowan writes to make inquiry of her husband, Will McGowan, who has disappeared from Obion county, Tenn., and is believed to have come to Paducah to look for work. He was last heard from at Bellevue, Tenn., and his wife is very anxious to hear from him.

DIED SUDDENLY

WOMAN A VICTIM OF HEART DISEASE ON A SHANTYBOAT.

Ellen Davis, colored, age 45, died yesterday afternoon late of heart disease and will be buried this afternoon at Oak Grove. She lived on a shantyboat at the foot of Madison street. She was seized with the attack and Dr. Eubanks summoned, but passed away before anything could be done for her. She leaves two daughters.

Mrs. J. S. Calanna of St. Louis left at noon today for Eldysville to visit her father, Col. Jim Leonard. She has been visiting here.

MUST KNOW DANGER

A Colorado Judge Renders an Important Opinion.

Men Employed to Take Strikers' Place Should Be Told of Peril.

ENTITLED TO DAMAGES

Denver, Colo., April 15—Employers who fail to explain to men taking the places of others who may be out on a strike the annoyance or violence to which they supersede are liable for damages in case injury is done. This is the opinion of the court of appeals just handed down in the case of William Holshanser, who, while in the employ of the Denver Gas and Electric Co., was shot by striking employees of the company. He declared that he was hired without being told that there was a strike at the plant.

In giving the opinion the court, Justice Thompson, said: "The controlling feature of this case is that the employer knowingly exposed the employees to personal danger and concealed the danger from him. It is intimated that during the intervening time the plaintiff ought to have discovered that a strike was in progress and that the strikers' old employees were in no tranquil frame of mind."

"How he might have made the discovery, unless he had seen or heard something to suggest inquiry, we are not told. It is alleged that the plaintiff did not know that there was a strike on or that he was in any danger until he was attacked. The explicit statement of fact is not to be met by mere argument."

PIONEER DAYS.

SUGGESTS AN IDEA FOR THE KENTUCKY EXHIBIT AT ST. LOUIS.

Danville, Ky., April 15—Captain S. M. Boone, of this city, has written a letter to President Francis, of the St. Louis World's Fair exhibit, suggesting a characteristic exhibit in the way of a reproduction of the old fort at Boonesborough, Madison county, with a realistic scene of the capture of Boone and the Calloway girls by the Indians, the pursuit and rescue by the father and a sham battle showing the attack on the fort by the Indians and the repulse. Captain Boone received a letter yesterday from the commission saying the matter would be looked into at an early date. The matter has been taken up most favorably by the St. Louis papers.

A NOVEL WEDDING

$25 Goes to Any Couple Who Will Marry on Stage.

It Is Believed That a Large Crowd Will Attend the Ceremony Tomorrow.

Last summer the English Stock company attracted a great deal of attention throughout the country by having a wedding performed during one of its performances at The Kentucky. The Peruch Belknap company, now in the city, will try the same plan, and offers to the couple who will marry during tomorrow night's performance $25, in addition to paying for the marriage license, the minister's fee, and other expenses.

Last year the innovation drew a large crowd to the theater, and tomorrow night it will doubtless do likewise. The couple desiring to take advantage of the offer and be married on the stage, must notify Mr. Peruch at the box office as soon as possible.

BRUTALLY BEATEN

More Evidence Heard in Lakeland Asylum Scandal.

Grand Jury Will at Once Take Up the Matter for Thorough Investigation.

ONE DISABLED FOR LIFE

Louisville, Ky., April 15—The scandal at the Central asylum for the insane at Lakeland grows apace, and the investigation continues. The grand jury has joined with the trustees, and a delegation from that body in attending the hearings. The committee from the grand jury reported to the full body yesterday and arrangements were made to take up the matter as soon as the trustees have finished. Those of the inmates who are sane enough to give testimony will be brought into the city and taken before that body.

The investigating committee has taken up the female wards, as well as the male wards, and the prospects are that the investigation will continue till Saturday.

Another striking case of cruelty discovered is that of Roy King, an attendant, who is accused by a patient of having kicked and choked him and breaking two of his ribs. The patient was induced to testify with great difficulty, as he feared further injuries. King, he said, assaulted him for refusing to wait on the table. Two attendants gave corroboration of the patient's charges.

Throwing himself upon the mercy of the investigating committee of the board of trustees and begging for protection, declaring that he feared for his life, the patient, who has just recovered from an assault made by King, gave his testimony. The patient had been confined to his bed for five weeks on account of his two broken ribs and other injuries which may disable him physically for life.

The examination of the patient was the most dramatic incident of the investigation of the charges of cruelty on the part of the attendants at the asylum, and it was also brought out that several physicians at the institution knew of the affair though they failed to report it. King is still employed at the asylum.

According to the testimony of the patient, who is an old man, he was told by one of the attendants to get some milk at breakfast time. Upon his replying that he would get it when it came King knocked him down and jumped on his breast. Then the patient was dragged to the ward and looked up.

The witness' testimony was corroborated by a boy, who was present when the assault occurred. An attendant also stated that he had known of the occurrence.

Other instances of cruelty also were brought out, and it was developed that in the negro female wards, a patient was held under water until she was really strangled while another had been beaten and choked.

The committee is having difficulty in getting positive evidence, first because the capable inmates fear to testify, and second, because it is hard to discriminate between those who are capable and those who have delusions. It is the general impression, however, that conditions at the asylum could not be much worse.

LIKES WALKING.

MISS HENRIETTA CROSMAN PREFERS IT TO RIDING.

Most persons might think that if fortune were kind enough to give them a carriage they would ride in it, but Miss Henrietta Crosman, the actress, who will be here Friday, frequently uses hers as a sort of escort while she briskly accompanies it on foot. This custom of walking beside her carriage is a frequent one of Miss Crosman's after the play at night. It is her way of composing herself after the wearing excitement of an evening in the theater. She votes it far better than a social snapper, which she never takes, or any of those other forms of relaxation which are popularly supposed to belong to stage life. So it often happens that when Miss Crosman leaves the theater she bundles her mail into the waiting carriage, while the actress herself, with her manager or some member of her executive staff, all of whom invariably wait to see her after the performance, sets out at a lively pace to walk. In New York Miss Crosman lives quite a distance uptown, just off Fifth avenue, and often she walks the entire way home. Again five or six blocks will suffice her, when she hails her coachman, who always keeps within call, and makes the rest of the journey in the carriage.

While at work sparks from the anvil flew into the box and ignited the sawdust. He quickly grabbed it to throw it out, but it exploded just as he let loose and he was fearfully injured.

THE SPECIAL DAYS

Executive Committee Selects Them for the Carnival.

There Will Be Two Big Parades, Monday and Thursday Morning.

CARNIVAL ARRANGEMENTS

The carnival executive committee met last night at Secretary Bronough's establishment on Broadway with promoter Hailer present. He stated that he was very much gratified at the enthusiasm he found manifested on every side and felt confident that the carnival would be a great success.

The committee fixed the special days as follows:

Monday, N. C. and St. L. day.
Tuesday, Mayfield day.
Wednesday, Illinois day.
Thursday, Cairo day.
Friday, Governor's day.
Saturday, Paducah day.

It was decided to have two big parades, one on Monday, and a burlesque parade on Thursday.

The advertising is well under way, and matter has been sent to all the adjacent towns as well as to sixteen of the smaller postoffices in this section. All the boats will have streamers bearing the date of the big carnival.

SENATOR HANNA.

SPOKE AT A BIG BANQUET LAST NIGHT.

Syracuse, N. Y., April 15—Senator M. A. Hanna was the guest of honor at the annual banquet of the Syracuse chamber of commerce. Senator Hanna discussed "Capital and Labor." He said that in the great struggles between the two advantage always was with the employer, who is often times selfish in maintaining his position. Mr. Hanna then went into the history of the civic federation and discussed its work.

Senator Hanna preached the equality of man. "I stand," he declared, "on the broad platform that in this great brotherhood of men we are all equal. I stand on the platform that every man who has the power to do service to his municipality, state and nation and to his Maker and to himself to use that power to the fullest extent to do that which will produce the best for humanity."

Senator Hanna asserted his faith in the future of both capital and labor in their individual and mutual relations. He referred to the prosperity of the country and said with a continuance of good understanding between the representatives of labor and capital he could see no reason why such prosperity should not continue.

WOMAN NEARLY KILLED

BURGLARS LEFT THE GAS TURNED ON AND AN AWFUL EXPLOSION FOLLOWED.

Chicago, April 15—Burglars turned on the gas in a house which they had just robbed and caused an explosion which nearly resulted in the death of Mrs. Ada Brownell, the wife of C. W. Brownell, a prominent western mine owner. Mrs. Brownell was blown from the kitchen into the yard where she lay for an hour before she recovered and gave an alarm. The house was badly wrecked by the explosion. Mrs. Brownell had been absent from home, and as she unlocked her door and lighted a match the gas which filled the rooms was ignited. Numerous articles were missed when the ruins were searched, leading to the belief that burglars were responsible for the affair.

FIRE AND DYNAMITE

INDIANA TOWN IS THREATENED WITH DESTRUCTION.

Montgomery, Ind., April 15—Wm. Brown, a merchant, has received a letter from unknown persons warning the citizens that unless they place a glass jar containing $2,500 at the end of a bridge west of here the town will be destroyed by fire and dynamite.

The letter has caused excitement among the people, as incendiaries have made three attempts to set the town on fire within the last three weeks. The incendiaries escaped. The letter said that these efforts to wipe out the town were but an indication of what would come if the money was not left at the bridge.

LIVELY AT WHARF

Almost a Dozen Steamers at Landing This Morning.

Resembled the Old Steamboat Days, Said the Veterans on the Corner.

The wharf presented a busy appearance this morning, and it is seldom that so many boats are to be found there at once. The older river men declared that it reminded them strongly of the olden times, when steamboating was better and more strenuous than it is now.

"If we had more wharf we'd have more boats, too," declared one. "You see there is not room enough for those down there now."

The boats moored there at one time were: Island Queen, Cincinnati excursion steamer; City of Memphis, St. Louis and Tennessee river; Avalon, Cairo and Chattanooga; Butterfield, Cumberland river; Dick Fowler, Cairo and Paducah; Little Owen, the ferryboat; Clyde, Paducah and Tennessee river; Sunshine, Cincinnati and Memphis; Charleston, Paducah and Tennessee river; Cowling, Paducah and Matropolis. There were also the Mary N and several harbor tugs towing and coaling.

Mr. S. T. Payne returned to La Center this morning.

THE ELKS' NEW HOME

Handsome Retreat at Bedford City, Va., Furnished

It Will Be Dedicated May 21 With Imposing Ceremonies by the Order.

5,000 ELKS ARE EXPECTED

The ambition of the Elks of the United States is to be realized on May 21, when their handsome home for aged and infirm members is to be dedicated and thrown open for use at Bedford City, Va.

Every Elk in the United States is interested in the project, and arrangements have been made on an elaborate scale for the opening exercises. It was necessary to appoint a time when the weather will be sufficiently warm for the guests to remain out of doors, as the building is not large enough to accommodate the large number that will attend. It is estimated by the grand lodge officers that over 5,000 Elks, representing every section of the United States, will congregated in the little Virginia village in the heart of the mountains.

The Hotel Bedford, which was purchased by the Elks for $12,000, and they have spent over $40,000 in improvements. The manner of raising this fund which was not in the way of extra cost to any member of the organization, is interesting.

When the first talk of the project began the question of making an assessment against the members of the order was discussed, and it was concluded that it would not be wise to make any extra tax on the members. Upon inquiry, however, it was found that each lodge in the United States was willing to take 25 cents from the annual assessment of each member and put this amount in the grand lodge treasury for the building fund. This was done, and without fuss, bazaar, or in any way calling on the public or levying an extra tax on the members, the necessary sum was raised, and in May the building will be ready for the purpose for which it was intended.

The program of exercises for the dedicatory ceremonies has not been completed, but it will include addresses by Governor A. J. Montague of Virginia, Senator Daniel of Virginia, and many notable Elks from other sections of the United States.

Women's Headaches

PORTLAND, MAINE, Oct. 17, 1902.

I consider Wine of Cardui superior to any doctor's medicine I ever used and I know whereof I speak. I suffered for nine months with suppressed menstruation which completely prostrated me. Pains would shoot through my back and sides and I would have blinding headaches. My limbs would swell up and I would feel so weak I could not stand up.

I naturally felt discouraged for I seemed to be beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui came as a God-send to me. I felt a change for the better within a week. After nineteen days treatment I menstruated without suffering the agonies I usually did and soon became regular and without pain.

Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I wish that all suffering women knew of its good qualities.

Mrs. Wilhelmina Snow
Treasurer, Portland Economic League.

Headaches are the danger signals of coming disease. Malarial headache predicts fever. Billous headache foretells liver troubles. Neuralgic headache shows overworked nerves. Periodical headaches tell of female weakness.

Both men and women suffer the first four kinds of headaches, but the last, periodical headache, falls only to the lot of women and cannot be mistaken, for it is the warning sign of irregular menstruation and bearing down pains.

No women need give up and accept a life of suffering unless she allows herself to despair. Mrs. Snow, in her letter shows every suffering woman how not only suffering can be avoided but how weakness can be conquered and the best health assured.

She tells, how even when the best medical aid failed, Wine of Cardui worked a complete cure.

Completely prostrated by nine months of suppressed menses, blinded by headaches and racked with pain she was made a strong and healthy woman again. One week of suppression is a serious thing. But nine months! Think of it! Can your suffering be greater than hers? Can your case be more seemingly hopeless?

Remember with Wine of Cardui no case is hopeless because this great remedy cures permanently nineteen out of every twenty cases and never fails to benefit a case of irregular menses, bearing down pains or any female weakness. Mrs. Snow's attention was attracted to Wine of Cardui when she was discouraged and beyond the help of physicians—if she hadn't been beyond doctor's help she probably never would have come to take Wine of Cardui. If you are discouraged and doctors have failed, that is the best reason in the world you should try Wine of Cardui, and try it now. Remember that headaches mean female weakness. They are from the same cause as the irregular flow. Cure one and you cure both. Do not postpone your case. Secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui today. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

REMAINS FOUND

Livingston County Man's Body Recovered at Last.

W. I. Threlkeld Was Drowned About a Year Ago Off the Hopkins.

The body of W. I. Threlkeld, formerly of Carrollville, Livingston county, who disappeared while making a trip on the John S. Hopkins a year ago Monday, was found a day or two ago near Mt. Vernon, Ind., at the mouth of the Wabash river. His brother, Mr. C. H. Threlkeld, of Memphis, was in the city last evening en route home after going to Mt. Vernon to identify the remains.

The body was found a few days ago, and appeared to have been partially covered with sediment during all those months. The lower portion was fairly well preserved but the upper portion was a mere skeleton. The identification was made by means of the shoes and clothing and the glass shell of a false eye. The deceased had an eye put on several years ago by a piece of wood which pierced his brain and also seemed to effect his mind, and at times he did not appear to be rational. The last time he was seen was aboard the John S. Hopkins a year ago. He left his coat and watch with the clerk and disappeared and several men on the bank said they saw him jump overboard.

He was a well known young man and was well known in Paducah, having for a time worked for Mr. E. W. Whittemore, the real estate man.

A NEW LINE

I. C. THE HACKER IN ALABAMA RAILROAD PROJECT.

Birmingham, Ala., April 15—It is learned here that the recent change in control of the Brunswick and Birmingham railroad, now in course of construction from Brunswick to Birmingham makes Illinois Central interests the financial backers, and practically owners, of this new line, and means that when the Illinois Central completes its projected extension from Jackson, Tenn., to this city it will connect here with the Brunswick road, thus securing a through route of its own from Chicago to Atlantic tidewater.

Work of construction began on the Illinois Central Birmingham extension today at Bemis, Tenn., two miles south of Jackson, and will be pushed vigorously.

SCHOOL ELECTION

PRESIDENT OF BOARD TO BE ELECTED AT METROPOLIS.

Saturday the people of Metropolis will elect a president of the board of education and two members. The candidates for re-election are Messrs. J. M. Elliott and L. O. Flanagan and Prof. Trent.

Master Mochant T. F. Berton returned from Memphis this morning.

THEY GROW LESS

Reports Show Big Reduction in Fatalities.

Resulting from the Use of Automatic Car Couplers.

Washington, April 15—A table prepared by the inter-state commerce commission, giving the railroad accidents in the United States from 1886 to 1902, shows a number of startling results in the percentage of fatalities and casualties due to the passage of the automatic coupler act in 1893, which went into effect August 1, 1900. The table shows that in 1886 the railroad employees who met their death while coupling or uncoupling cars constituted 13.1 per cent of the whole number killed, while those injured while engaged in this work constituted 46.8, or nearly half of those who received injuries from all causes. In 1902, with the automatic coupler act in full operation, those killed in coupling operations constituted only 3.6 per cent of the whole number of deaths, and the injured only 6.3 per cent of the total number of casualties.

In all the years up to 1901, when the railroads were equipped with the automatic coupler, the same high percentage of deaths due to coupling operations prevailed, and from 1900 on there has been a startling decrease, showing just how much this act accomplished in saving life. The percentages given above are all the more remarkable in view of the fact that in 1886 the mileage of railroads in the United States was only 125,185, as compared with 197,257 in 1902, while the railroad employees numbered about 700,000 in 1886, as compared with more than a million last year.

BEAUTY AND STRENGTH

Are desirable. You are strong and vigorous, when your blood is pure. Many—nay, most—women, fail to properly digest their food, and so become pale, sallow, thin and weak, while the brightness, freshness and beauty of the skin and complexion depart. Remedy this unpleasant evil by eating nourishing food and taking a small dose of Herbine after each meal to digest what you have eaten. 50c at Dullies Kolb & Co.

WILL FILE A SUIT—A suit has been prepared against the American Insurance company for Mr. Herwick, the Trimble street grocer whose place was damaged by fire recently. They have been unable to agree on the amount of loss or on a third adjuster, and the proprietor says he is tired waiting and will sue for the amount, $800.

HERBINE CURES

Fever and ague. A dose will usually stop a chill, a continuance always cures. Mrs. Wm. M. Stroud, Midlothian, Texas, May 31, writes: "We have used Herbine in our family for eight years, and found it the best medicine we have ever used, for la grippe, bilious fever, and malaria." 50c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

THE ALLEGATIONS

Made in Mrs. J. S. Cabanne's Suit for Divorce at St. Louis.

Charges Drunkenness and Failing to Provide the Proper Support.

The allegations in the divorce suit filed at St. Louis by Mrs. Shep Cabanne, of St. Louis, who is now visiting her sister, Mrs. J. Wheeler Campbell, in the city, are given in yesterday's St. Louis Republic, which says: "James Shepard Cabanne called at the court house yesterday and accepted service in the suit for divorce, filed by his wife, Minnie Leonard Cabanne. 'She charges him with drunkenness, treating her improperly and failing to properly support her and their child, James Shepard, aged one year and four months.

'She avers that on occasions too numerous to mention her husband returned home in a merrily intoxicated condition, and that he appeared before her and her friends in that condition. For three days before last Christmas day he was drunk, she states.

'She charges that he made cutting and insulting remarks, reflecting upon her character and habits, in the presence of strangers; that he accused her, without cause, with flirting with men on street cars and of being infatuated with his male friends, who visited at his house; that he was insanely jealous; that he has a violent temper and cursed and swore at her in the presence of others.

'On one occasion, she states, after she had been ill for three days and confined to bed, he cursed and swore at her and her sister.

'He refused to escort her to places of amusement or permit her to attend them with her friends, she avers.

'During all of the course of their married existence, she states, he failed to provide her with sufficient means to purchase proper clothing for herself and their child, and she was obliged to apply to her father for means for the purpose.

'She also avers that during all of their married life, he failed to provide her with means necessary to maintain the household, and that she was obliged to pay the greatest portion of the household expenses with money obtained from her father.

'They eloped and were married at Metropolis, Ill., in June, 1898, and separated January 31, last. She asks for the custody of their child."

POLICE COMMISSIONERS.

APPOINT MR. HARVEY ALLEN ON FIRE DEPARTMENT.

The board of fire and police commissioners held a meeting last night and appointed Mr. Harvey Allen a regular stationman at the South Side department. Mr. Allen was formerly a member of Central station, but has recently been foreman of the steam heating force.

He succeeds Will Burton, who resigned some time ago. George Ferrell has been filling the vacancy temporarily, but has resigned to work on the marine ways.

Will Husbands was appointed substitute, which places him in line for a regular job.

FEW JURORS

SHERIFF ORDERED TO SUMMON MORE AT MURRAY.

When court convened at Murray it was learned that the sheriff had summoned only sixteen instead of twenty men for the grand jury. Judge Cook then drew a new list and ordered the sheriff to summon them and report today.

Mr. J. H. Keys, brother of Mr. H. G. Keys, who was killed there recently, objected to the sheriff summoning them, but the objection was overruled.

POSTAL RECEIPTS.

THERE IS A BIG INCREASE IN THEM.

Washington, April 15—The gross receipts of the postal service for the quarter ended December 31, 1902, were $35,223,094, and the expenditures $34,586,490. The receipts showed an increase of $3,000,000 over the same quarter a year ago, but owing to liberal appropriations and extensions of service the surplus was $350,000 less than the corresponding quarter in 1901.

SSS THE OLDEST AND BEST BLOOD PURIFIER

THE GREATEST OF ALL TONICS.

A Spring Medicine that adds vigor and strength to the system, purifies and enriches the Blood, and lays the foundation for a strong constitution and good health during the hot sultry summer.

Most everybody feels bad in the spring. Some have no particular ailment but are just tired, worn out and totally unfit for work or anything else that requires energy or effort. They mope around upon the border-land of invalidism, irritable, peevish, hysterical and unreasonable.

A good appetite in the spring is a rarity, and we sicken at the sight of food, or thought of eating, and what little we do eat is a burden to the stomach and a tax upon the digestion.

Warm weather is sure to bring out the hidden poisons, germs and seeds of disease that have been collecting in the blood and system during winter, and you may look for some old chronic trouble to make its appearance. It is a time, too, when boils and carbuncles, and pustular or scaly skin eruptions like eczema and tetter, pay their annual visits and make life miserable by their intense pains and intolerable itching and burning.

The fight for health should begin before any warning symptoms of physical collapse are felt, or before the seeds of disease have time to germinate if we would avoid the usual spring sickness; and with S. S. S., the acknowledged king of blood purifiers and greatest of all tonics, you can put your blood and system in such perfect condition and so strengthen the constitution that one may be as free from sickness and as vigorous and strong during the trying months of spring and depressing summer season as at any other time.

S. S. S. not only builds you up, but searches out and destroys any poisonous germs or impurities that may be lurking in the blood. The benefits derived from the use of S. S. S. are permanent because it acts directly on the blood and purifies and cleanses it of all impure matter, leaving nothing to cause fermentation and deterioration of this life-giving fluid.

In selecting your blood purifier and spring tonic get one that long experience and thorough test have proven the best. In S. S. S. you will find a remedy whose purifying properties are unquestionable, and just such a tonic as your system needs. Ask your druggist for S. S. S.—there is nothing else just as good.

For the past 40 years we have had a standing offer of $1,000 for proof that S. S. S. contains the least particle of any mineral whatever, and this offer is still open.

MR. CLEVELAND MAKES A HIT.

Although Grover Cleveland has respectfully denied that he wanted or would have the Democratic presidential nomination, he is becoming quite sprightly and loquacious of late. In fact, it begins to look as if he is suffering from an enthusiastic visit of the presidential bee. He made a somewhat elaborate speech at a Madison

Square banquet in New York last night, which has elicited immediate praise from the southern press.

The same papers that a few days ago were anathematizing him in a most vicious manner, are now alluding to his speech as "a statesmanlike utterance," because he takes the position in his last address, that the southern people are best able to judge questions affecting the negro race, and there is no use in the people of the north trying to take any hand in it.

Mr. Cleveland significantly declared:

"I have faith in the honor and sincerity of the respectable white people of the south in their relations with the negro and his improvement and well being. They do not believe in the social equality of the race, and they make no false pretenses in regard to it. That this does not grow out of hatred of the negro is very plain."

The sentiments he expresses throughout it are in keeping with the above,

and they have made a tremendous hit with the south. His coup seems designed to make him a strong candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination next year, and probably he knew it when he made the speech. It has been predicted for some time that

Cleveland was the only logical candidate for the Democratic nomination, and matters have begun to shape themselves in such a manner as to indicate that the presumption was well founded.

It is now up to Mr. Bryan. The fun ought to begin pretty soon after he sees what a killing his ancient enemy has made in the stronghold of Democracy.

One of the witnesses in the Howard case has testified that former Governor

Taylor offered him $2500 and a pardon to kill Senator Goebel. He seems to be a new found jewel for Tom Camp-this crime, possibly he thinks he will just go ahead and hear the evidence against him while the witnesses are in practice.

The effort to enforce the ordinance against obstructions on the streets and sidewalks of Paducah is a good one.

Paducah is a very bad place for this.

Often from a dozen to half a hundred goods boxes may be found piled up at one place in front of downtown stores rendering the pavement almost impossible. The fire departments are endangered every time they make a run after dark by the piles of rubbish and material left in the streets, and it is remarkable that a serious or fatal accident has not occurred before now from such carelessness. If the people now taught that such violations will be promptly punished, they will soon stop them.

Complaints have been registered with the proper authorities relative to the slag being spread on the streets in many places. The sharp and pointed substance cuts like a knife blade and damages every rubber tire that passes over it. It is understood that the city authorities have replied to these complaints that people can avoid the disastrous effects of the slag by driving around it. Along the same line of brilliant argument they might drive around the holes in the street, which need not be patched with anything, and then the slag would not have to be used.

Everything indicates Republican success in Kentucky this November.

The Democratic party is hopelessly divided, and it will be no better off after the primary when the machine has ground the other fellows in the dual.

All the Republican party needs to do is to pick out good men for the offices.

Even the Democrats are ready for a change.

The Lakeland asylum scandal is growing out of all proportions, and is attracting the attention of the whole country. As long as our institutions are in the hands of professional grafters and politicians who are there solely to mistreat and rob, just so long will such affairs disgrace the fair name of our state.

Jim Howard, it seems from the evidence already admitted at Frankfort, is certain of a new trial. It appears his political enemies who are in charge of the trials, intend to keep him in jail

all his life getting new trial after new trial.

500 of the New Telephones Started Today

Long Distance Line Not Yet Ready to be Cut in.

The Independent Telephone Co.

started up this morning and put in operation about 500 of its telephones.

An employee of the company stated this morning that all phones would not be cut in yet, but would be working within a few days. The phones that are now out in are in excellent working order and have given the best of satisfaction. The long distance lines are not cut in and will not be for some time yet. The line was begun yesterday and will push the work to completion.

The formal opening will not be held for some time and when the date is finally set invitations will be issued and a general inspection of the plant invited.

MANY OBSTRUCTIONS

Warrants Issued Today for About Fifty Persons.

Must Remove Boxes as Well as Material From the Streets.

A move has been inaugurated to relieve the city of the many obstructions that are to be found on nearly all the streets and sidewalks. The ordinance regulating such things has been a dead letter for some time, and Chief Wood of the fire department has made a kick, as the fire department is endangered by hidden obstructions every time it makes a run at night.

The police commissioners have urged the enforcement of the law, and the police have received instructions to warrant every offender. As a result warrants were today sworn out against about thirty merchants and others for blocking the sidewalks downtown, and fifteen or twenty for blocking the streets and gutters.

Among the latter are several contractors who failed to put out danger lights on piles of material they have left in the streets and gutters. The police are busy today serving the summonses, and the cases will probably come appear tomorrow morning before Judge Sanders.

Smallpox at Maysville May Result in its Being Held in Lexington.

On account of the epidemic of small pox in Maysville, Ky., the state teachers' association will not be held at that place, as intended, but will this week be changed probably to Lexington by the committee appointed for that purpose.

Prof. C. A. Norvell, of the local high school, is on that committee and stated this morning that Lexington was the most favored of all mentioned cities, and that this would probably be named as the meeting place. The committee intends to make this the most interesting and successful annual meeting ever held and arrangements are already being made for the meeting. The date set for the beginning is May 24 and will last through three days.

Prof. C. A. Norvell, Prof. W. H. Suggs

and Misses Cora Hally, Ada Brazel-ton and Sue Kirk will probably attend from here.

had the measurements for suits taken.

The colors selected are those of the ## Theatrical Notes.

Success sometimes has an odd effect on its recipient. Take the case of Miss Henrietta Crossman, who will come in The Kentucky Friday night. One night some years ago, after she had scored a very great success before a New York audience, she was found by her manager, Mr. Maurice Campbell, at the end of the first act, weeping quietly. She felt quite positive that she was doomed to failure. Mr. Campbell, however, told her to cheer up, to go courageously through her work in the second act, saying he felt confident she would win out. She tried her tears and went on. At the end of the second act, the applause having been generous, and the audience having cheered itself to real interest, Miss Crossman felt she had succeeded to some extent. But she was not quite sure. When the third act closed Mr. Campbell went to his star's dressing room and found her radiant, confident and sure she had won. When the curtain fell and she knew there was no doubt of her artistic success she became semi-hysterical. This was on Tuesday night. Next morning the critics sang her praises as the praises of an actress never had been sung before. Seats went on sale today for Miss Crossman's production here.

The attraction at The Kentucky next Monday night will be the new sensational melodrama, which has scored a big hit in the present theatrical season, "A Gambler's Daughter."

SHARP COMPETITION

Illinois Central to Prevent a Shorter Line.

It Is Reported That It Has Taken Steps to Beat the Frisco.

NEW LINES TO BE BUILT

Chicago, Ill., April 15—A sharp contest is in progress between the Illinois Central, the Frisco, and some other system for the shortest route between Natchez and New Orleans, traversing the sugar belt.

Some time ago the Shreveport and Red River Valley railroad was organized and began making surveys in the territory mentioned. It was presumed that the company was backed by the Missouri Pacific, but inquiry of Gould officials met with emphatic denials. Not long after the Shreveport road began surveying another engineering party entered the field, and it was learned that they had been sent by the Frisco people. Officials of the Illinois Central made investigation, and learned that both of the routes surveyed would make lines considerably shorter than theirs from the territory mentioned into New Orleans. The tonnage of the region is exceedingly heavy, and is increasing rapidly. Therefore, the Illinois Central management did not desire to let any other company get the short line.

About three months ago a surveying party was sent secretly into the territory, and ran a survey from Natchez to Bayou Sara, thence to Blanghaz and New Orleans. The new line will follow the east bank of the river, and will have the effect of double tracking the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley from Bayou Sara down. A line has also been surveyed from Vicksburg to Natchez in almost an air line. The construction of this road will shorten the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley road considerably between Vicksburg and New Orleans, and will run through the heart of the sugar district.

It has also been announced that the Illinois Central will not use the Frisco tracks between Jackson and Birmingham. Surveys have been completed for a new line between the two points, and this will place the company in touch with some of the richest mineral deposits in the south.

Go Back to the Farm. There is an cure for conditions of depression in either organized labor or organized capital. Both depend on the markets and neither the one nor the other can command them. The real remedy for hard times, the enforced remedy for redundant labor, is a reversal of the downward tide of population. As a last resort men must dig to live, and they must go back to the land to dig. The reviving movement for the occupation of the public lands in the west is a healthy one even where it takes the form of migration to the cheaper prairie lands of Canada.—Exchange.

Social Notes and About People.

AN ATTRACTIVE HOME WEDDING.

The marriage of Miss May Paxton and Mr. Peter Puryear was quietly solemnized this morning at 10:30 o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Paxton, on West Jefferson street.

It was an exceedingly pretty home wedding, and was witnessed by the relatives and most intimate friends of the popular young couple. The house was effectively decorated with plants and carnations, the white and green color-tone charmingly emphasizing the beauty of the Easter wedding. The ceremony was impressively performed by the Rev. Father H. W. Jansen of the St. Francis de Sales Catholic church. The bride party entered to the Mendelssohn wedding march played by Miss Mamie O'Brien. The only attendants were the bride's brothers, Mr. James Paxton and Mr. Edwin Paxton. The bride wore an artistic and becoming traveling gown of blue voile over tulle, with hat.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Puryear left on the noon train for the east and will visit New York, Washington, and Philadelphia. They will be at home about May 1.

Among the out-of-town guests present for the wedding were: Mrs. Ralph Niedringhaus, of Granite City, Ill.; Miss May Higgins, of St. Louis; Miss Sadie Black, of Owensboro, and Mr. Marshall Puryear, who is attending school at Spring Hill, Tennessee.

A PLEASANT AFFAIR.

Union encampment last night gave an entertainment at Odd Fellows hall, and there was a large crowd present. There were music and refreshments and everybody greatly enjoyed the affair, which was for the purpose of arousing interest in the grand encampment here next month.

Had Reasons for Her Stand. The Empress Augusta of Germany, grandmother of the second-toned, had an intense dislike to being photographed, and considered that the portraits of great royal personages should not be cheapened and scattered broadcast over the land. Her majesty's opinion on the subject may have been influenced by the fact that she had ceased to be a beauty when the common sun-picture came into vogue, and that it could only have represented her as an elderly lady to whom time had been "unkind," and whose make-up had ceased to be successful.

Tailor Made Clothing Is the Cheapest

That sounds like a broad statement. You may doubt it. However 'tis true.

Real economy is to be found in custom tailor clothing for the following reasons

The fabrics wear longer
Hold their shape always Hold their colors.

Always look better.

Give you an air of prosperity and of having the correct thing.

The first cost is just a fraction more than the other sort.

If you will let me make your clothing you will never wear "the other sort."

The Ferarri Carnival Co., which is to be here May 11 to 16, is said to be the cleverest and largest aggregation of its kind in the world, and will have sixteen big attractions, all at a very small price of admission. One of the cleverest features of the whole company is the Royal Lilliputian Court, in which a performance is given by Lilliputians. It is comical to see the tiny little fellows go through their performances and to note the ease and grace with which they say their lines, sing their songs and do their dances. It is a matter of wonder where the Feraris ever got hold of so many midgets. It is not considered unusual to see one or two of them, but when you see a whole troupe of little persons fully developed and not much larger than a 3 year old child performing a series of difficult songs and dances and clever comedy work one begins to wonder at the versatility of the Feraris and wonder where they managed to get them all together and indeed it has taken years of gathering to do it. They pick up one here and another there, and it is said if Ool. Ferari hears of a dwarf in any part of the globe he immediately journeys hither and if there is any possibility of histrionic ability in him he will have it developed at once.

The Royal Lilliputian Court is a troupe of considerable ability and size and is said to be the cleverest on the road. Their performance is said to merit a much larger price of admission than is charged. It is said that next season the Feraris are to take them on the road in a new play written by Francis Ferari which is said to be of considerable merit. It is hoped that everybody will give the little ones a cordial reception and will turn out. Already people in the small towns near have been inquiring about excursions, etc., so that there is no doubt but what this carnival will be a huge success and that we will be able to repeat it every year.

Deputy U. S. Marshal George Saunders arrived from the south today at noon. He has been summoning witnesses for the April term of federal court and has nearly all served.

CROP REPORT.

WHEAT IS REPORTED IN EXCELLENT CONDITION.

The weekly crop report is as follows:

"The temperature averaged considerably above the normal during the week. Showers occurred in all portions of the state Tuesday night and Wednesday, and the week closed with heavy showers in progress. The rain delayed farm work to quite an extent in many places, but all vegetation advanced rapidly.

"Wheat is in excellent condition and the present outlook for a large yield is unusually good.

"Winter oats and rye are also very promising. A smaller acreage than usual of spring oats has been sown.

"Corn planting has only begun and is progressing slowly on account of rain.

"The tobacco beds were generally planted quite late, but they are coming up nicely and the early ones are growing rapidly.

"Peaches were badly injured by frosts and freezing weather earlier in the season, and the outlook is very poor for the crop. Some of the later varieties will give a partial crop. Other fruits are, in most localities in fair condition.

"Gardens are very backward, planting having been delayed by rain. Grass is in splendid condition and much farther advanced than is usual at this time of year. Stock of all kinds are in very fair condition."

BODY IN A BARREL

BODY OF AN ITALIAN STILL WARM, WITH THROAT OUT, DISCOVERED BY A WOMAN.

New York, April 15.—A murder was discovered here by the finding of the body of a man, apparently an Italian, in a barrel on East Eleventh street, near the docks. The man's throat was cut from ear to ear. The body was warm when found, and the work of ferreting out the supposed crime was begun at once by detectives.

A scrub woman on her way to work today noticed the barrel on the sidewalk, and she saw hanging on its man's coat soaked with blood. She informed the police. The first and the only clue found during several hours' search was the letter "W. T." painted on the bottom of the barrel, but the police think these letters will aid them a good deal in revealing the mystery. It is supposed that somebody intended to throw the body into the river after bringing it there in a wagon, but found the pier at East Eleventh street closed and dropped the load in the street in a hurry, fearing discovery.

Hart is in the sanitarium in a serious condition with a broken arm and jaw.

The Margaret went into Tennessee river this morning for ties.

The Buttrick is here and will leave at noon for Cumberland river.

The Dick Fowler left on time for Cairo this morning with a good trip.

The Thomas B. Pearce left at 3 o'clock this afternoon for Golconda. She will run daily between Golconda and Paducah, leaving Paducah every afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The Island Queen arrived at 6 o'clock this morning from Cairo and took on coal preparatory to making her excursions here. She had had a fresh coat of paint and is clean from hold to hurricane roof.

Pilot O. B. Yarbrough, for several years on the H. W. Battorff, came in on the boat this morning and left for St. Louis, where he takes a position on the Hill City. He is succeeded on the Battorff by John Pennal.

"What constitutes a tow?" asks a river column reader. When a towboat hitches to any number of coalboats, barges or any other kind of floating craft, composed of from two to fifty pieces, and shoves it down or up the river, what she handles is called a tow. Some tows are larger and heavier than others, but they are tows all the same.

Mr. Ben McGill, who was tried for larceny at Louisville, Ky., a few days ago, and declared a mental and physical wreck at the age of 40, was in his younger days one of the most popular hotel and steamboat clerks in this section of the country. He began river life in the office of one of the Louisville and Evansville packets, was cashier in the Louisville hotel, head clerk in the Galt house, and fell in love with a woman who left him in Memphis a penniless, ruined man.

CHEAP LARD

THERE ARE 5,000 POUNDS TO BE SOLD.

Alderman Charles Smith has 5,000 pounds of old-fashioned kettle-rendered lard which he has been unable to sell at wholesale and has decided to close the lot out at retail. Mr. Smith has the lard put up in three, five, ten, twenty and fifty pounds cans and wants to sell at reduced price. The lard is excellent and must be closed out at once. The wholesalers have plenty on hand and did not care to take on any more stock or would have purchased his supply. This is an excellent chance to buy in retail lots at wholesale prices and no doubt many housekeepers will take advantage of it.

WALKS WITHOUT CRUTCHES

I was much afflicted with sciatica, writes Ed. C. Nud, Louisville, Sedgwick Co., Kan., "going about on crutches and suffering a deal of pain. I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment, which relieved me, I used three 500 bottles. It is the greatest liniment I ever used; have recommended it to a number of persons, all express themselves as being benefited by it. I now walk without crutches able to perform a great deal of light labor on the farm." 25c, 50c and $1 at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

I counted the cash and found it to agree with the ledger. No cash items. I verified the individual ledger. ## "Lightness of a 'Dorothy Dodd'"

On the Scales

A great many interesting facts may be discovered with a pair of scales, but it is doubtful if any single fact will be more interesting and valuable to the average woman than the weight of her shoes.

For this tells her the number of ounces that must be lifted thousands of times each day, and a little calculation will show that she lifts tons of shoe leather a day—a small labor in itself.

The "Dorothy Dodd" shoe saves the lifting of more than one and one-half tons every day. A pair of "Dorothy Dodd" shoes are several ounces lighter than ordinary shoes. The feet are just so much more comfortable, and you are so much less tired. Put a pair to the test!

WHEN KNIGHTHOOD WAS IN FLOWER

Or, The Love Story of Charles Brandon and Mary Tudor, the King's Sister, and Happening in the Reign of His August Majesty King Henry the Eighth

Rewritten and Rendered into Modern English from Sir Edwin Caskoden's Memoir

By EDWIN CASKODEN [CHARLES MAJOR]

Copyright, 1898 and 1901, by the Haren-Merrill Company

We all rode merrily on to Windsor, and when we arrived it was curious to see the great nobles, Buckingham, both the Howards, Seymour and a doz-

She was but a trifle to his strong arms.

Others stand back for plain Charles Brandon to dismount the fairest maiden and the most renowned princess in Christendom. It was done most gracefully. She was but a trifle to his strong arms, and he lifted her to the seat as gently as if she were a child. The nobles envied Brandon his evident favor with this unattainable Mary and hated him accordingly, but they kept their thoughts to themselves for two reasons: First, they knew not to what degree the king's favor, already marked, with the help of the princess might carry him, and, second, they did not care to have a misunderstanding with the man who had cut out Adam Judson's eyes.

We remained at Windsor four or five days, during which time the king made several knights. Brandon would probably have been one of them, as everybody expected, had not Buckingham related to Henry the episode of the loose girl and adroitly poisoned his mind as to Mary's partiality. At this the king began to cast a jealous eye on Brandon. His sister was his chief diplomatic resource, and when she loved or married it should be for Henry's benefit, regardless of all else.

Brandon and the Lady Mary saw a great deal of each other during this little stay at Windsor, as she always had some plan to bring about a meeting, and, although very delightful to him, it cost him much in royal favor. He could not trace this effect to its proper cause, and it troubled him. I could have told him the reason in two words, but I feared to put into his mind the thought that the princess might learn to love him. As to the king, he would not have cared if Brandon or every other man, for that matter, should go stark mad for love of his sister, but when she began to show a preference he grew interested, and it was apt sooner or later to go hard with the fortunate one. When we went back to Greenwich, Brandon was sent on a day ahead.

CHAPTER VII.

LOVE'S PIERCE SWEETNESS.

AFTER we had all returned to Greenwich the princess and Brandon were together frequently. Upon several occasions he was invited, with others, to her parlor for card playing. But we spent two evenings with only four of us present prior to the disastrous events which changed everything, and of which I am soon to tell you. During these two evenings the "Sailor Lass" was in constant demand. This pair, who should have remained apart, met constantly in and about the palace, and every glance added fuel to the flame. Part of the time it was the princess with her troublesome dignity, and part of the time it was Mary—simply Mary. Notwithstanding these haughty moods, any one with half an eye could see that the princess was gradually succumbing to the budding woman; that Brandon's stronger nature had dominated her with that half fear which every woman feels who loves a strong man—stronger than herself.

One day the rumor spread through the court that the old French king, Louis XII., whose wife, Anne of Brittany, had just died, had asked Mary's hand in marriage. It was this probability which opened Brandon's eyes to the fact that he had been playing with the very worst sort of fire, and first made him see that in spite of himself, and almost without his knowledge, the girl had grown wonderfully sweet and dear to him. He now saw his danger and struggled to keep himself beyond the spell of her perilous glances and siren song. This modern Ulysses made a masterful effort, but, alas, had no ships to carry him away and no wax with which to fill his ears. Wax is a good thing, and no one should enter the sirena country without it. Ships, too, are good, with masts to tie oneself to and sails and rudder and a gust of wind to waft one quickly past the island. In fact, one cannot take too many precautions when in those enchanted waters.

Matters began to look dark to me. Love had dawned in Mary's breast, that was sure, and for the first time, with all his fierce sweetness, not that it had reached its noon, or anything like it. In truth, I hoped, die in the dawning, for my lady was as capricious as a May day, but it was love—love as plain as the sun at rising. She sought Brandon upon all occasions and made opportunities to meet him—not openly, at any rate; not with Brandon's knowledge, nor with any connivance on his part, but apparently caring little what he or any one else might see. Love lying in her heart had made her a little more shy than formerly in seeking him, but her straightforward way of taking whatever she wanted made her transparent little attempts at concealment very pathetic.

As for Brandon, the shaft had entered his heart, too, poor fellow, as surely as love had dawned in Mary's. He knew the hopeless misery such a passion would bring him, and helped the good Lord, in so far as he could, to answer his prayer and lead him not into temptation. As soon as he saw the truth he avoided Mary as much as possible.

As I said, we had spent several evenings with Mary after we came home from Windsor, at all of which her preference was shown in every movement. Some women are so expressive under strong emotion that every gesture, a turn of the head, a glance of the eyes, the lifting of a hand or the poise of the body speaks with a tongue of eloquence, and such was Mary. Her eyes would glow with a soft fire when they rested upon him, and her whole person told all too plainly what, in truth, it seemed she did not care to hide. When others were present, she would restrain herself somewhat, but with only Jane and myself she could hardly maintain a seemly reserve. During all this time Brandon remained cool and really seemed unconscious of his wonderful attraction for her. It is hard to understand why he did not see it, but I really believe he did not. Although he was quite at ease in her presence, too much so, Mary sometimes thought, and, strangely enough, sometimes told him in a fit of short lived, quickly repented anger that always set him laughing, yet there was never a word or gesture that could hint of undue familiarity.

After these last two meetings, although the invitations came frequently, none was accepted. Brandon had contrived to have his duties, ostensibly at least, occupy his evenings and did honestly what his judgment told him was the one thing to do—that is, remain away from a fire that could give no genial warmth, but was sure to burn him to the quick. I saw this only too plainly, but never a word of it was spoken between us.

The more I saw of this man the more I respected him, and this curbing of his affections added to my already high esteem. The effort was doubly wise in Brandon's case. After a time Mary began to suspect his attempts to avoid her, and she grew cold and distant through pique. Her manner, however, had no effect upon Brandon, who did not, or at least appeared not to, notice it. This the girl could not endure, and, lacking strength to resist her heart, soon returned to the attack.

Mary had not seen Brandon for nearly two weeks and was growing anxious, when one day she and Jane met him in a forest walk near the river. Brandon was sauntering along reading when they overtook him. Jane told me afterward that Mary's conduct upon coming up to him was pretty and curious beyond the naming. At first she was inclined to be distant and say cutting things, but when Brandon began to grow restive under them and showed signs of turning back she changed front in the twinkling of an eye and was all sweetness. She laughed and smiled and dimpled, as only she could, and was full of bright glances and gracious words.

She tried a hundred little schemes to get him to herself for a moment—the hunting of a wild flower or a four leaved clover or the exploration of some little nook in the forest toward which she would lead him—but Jane did not at first take the hint and kept close at her heels. Mary's impulsive nature was not much given to hinting—she usually loaded, and most emphatically at that—so after a few failures to rid herself of her waiting lady she said impatiently: "Jane, in the name of heaven, don't keep so close to us! You won't move out of reach of my hand, and you know how often it inclines to box your ears!"

Jane did know, I am sorry for Mary's sake to say, how often the fair hand was given to such spasms; so with this emphasized hint she walked on ahead, half sulky at the indignity put upon her and half amused at her whimsical mistress.

Mary lost no time, but began the attack at once.

POINTS TO NOTE IN REGARD TO THIS LINE.

We are using a green enamel gear exclusively, which is nicely striped with aluminum bronze. We are using stamped steel hubs, which are far superior to malleable hubs (which most manufacturers are using) as they are all uniform in size and hardness, and each and every one is alike, while the old style malleable hubs are all sizes and uneven, very often requiring a lot of filing to be made alike. It will fit the axle as it should, these hubs cost us a little more but we think it better and worth the difference in price to our trade. The adjustments are the best we have seen up to date. The front and back work independently of each other. To adjust the back, all it requires is a slight pressure of the lever in the back and you can set the back at three different angles. To adjust the front all that is necessary is to raise the dash to the required height and it will lock itself, and to release it, a slight jerk up will unlatch the automatic catch and allow the dash to go down completely. We are using nutless wheels on everything.

Our upholstering ideas are entirely new and novel, as we make all cushions upon the loose frames, which will retain their shape as long as the car lasts. These are far superior to the old style pad cushions used by most other manufacturers and they will fit any car so they can be changed from one to another should customers so desire. We show only a few of our large selection here.

THE WORLD MOVES

And if we don't move with the world it's apt to slip from under us and leave us without a foothold. To move with it means to keep up with the times and if you are a little in advance of them so much the better. In business great economies are being accomplished through system, and perfect systems are made possible by improved labor saving devices for operating them. To move with the business world you must keep posted on these systems and devices. In this connection the Globe-Wernicke Vertical Files and filing systems should be carefully investigated as they represent the highest degree of perfection in this line. Much interesting and valuable information can be gained by examining the devices at our store or writing for descriptive pamphlets of both systems and devices.
